class officers

Our class started the year with mixed emotions. Not the least of these was the feeling of regret for having to leave our old schools. Starting under the handicap of having come from seven different schools, we ended the year with the satisfaction of meeting many life-time friends and knowing that we helped set the traditions for North Scott.

We co-sponsored the first activity of the year with the junior class. This was a soc-hop held in the cafeteria.

Student Council representatives were elected through American Problems classes. Those chosen to represent the class were Dean Schneckloth, Dick Erling, Bill Bayles, Mary Orendorf, and Bev Spies.

Class officer elections were postponed until December in order to allow time for everybody to become better acquainted. Bill Bayles was elected President with Ray Strobbe, Vice-President; Sue Ewoldt, Secretary, and Dick Paulsen, Treasurer.

For most of us one of the most memorable events of the year was the Prom. Thanks to the junior class for working so hard to make it possible. King and Queen for the event were Sue Kreiter and Tom Behr. Their attendants were Bev Spies, Mary Orendorf, Ray Strobbe, and Daryl Mohr.

Our year would never have been complete without the picnic. Dancing, hiking, swimming, baseball, and badminton were just some of the activities provided.

All in all, we're very grateful for the guidance and assistance we have received from the teachers and administration, especially our advisers, Mr. Sible, Mr. Sehman, Mr. Clemmensen, and Mr. Anderson.

The main project of the Juniors this year was the Prom. Everything - every cent - that was earned was spent on this event.

The sock-hop, the work behind the concession stand, and the selling of refreshments after the talent show were just a few of the money making projects.

Leadership and representatives of the class were the officers and student council members. The class officers were Dave Barnet, President; Norm Meyer, Vice-President; Shirley Stender, Secretary; and Zita Madden, Treasurer. The student council representatives were Dale Hamann, Vice-President; Carolyn Tobey, Dolores Boyle, and Steve Young.

The Junior Class can also boast of having a winner at the state track meet. Bill Frazier came home winning first in the half-mile.

On the whole, it can be said that our first year at North Scott High School has been a good year. However, we are looking forward to doing even better and greater things in our Senior Year.

"We as the sophomore class have done an outstanding job this year. We have made achievements in everything from typing to football. The leaders and representatives of the class are the officers and the Student Council Members. They guide the class and set an example for others to follow. Our class officers were Gary Ewoldt, President; Mary Wiese, Vice-President; Mike Keehner, Secretary; and Lorna Tank, Treasurer. The Student Council members were Barb Hamann, Arlan Kay, Sandy Ewoldt, Greig Carlin, and Bev Amhof.

Members of the class have served the school in many ways. They have served at the concession stand at games and dances. At the Prom selected sophomores served the Juniors and Seniors.

We have also done our share in entertainment. We have sponsored the Halloween Soc-Hop, took part in the Variety Talent Show, and also sponsored the Mark Stevens dance along with the Juniors.

In the all school play, "The Curious Savage," Denny Koch, Mike Keehner and Sandy Ewoldt were in the cast. Lorna Tank was on the costume committee.

Freshmen Active in First Year at North Scott

"The freshman class of North Scott had a very active and fun-filled year. Two successful dances and a bake sale were among our main projects.

On October 24, the freshman class co-sponsored a sock-hop with the sophomores. Committee chairmen were Vicki Frye, Frannie Kreiter, and Shirley Hansen. The cafeteria was gaily decorated with streamers, pumpkins and cornstalks. Proceeds were estimated at $25.00.

The first orchestra to play at our school was Gene Gast's. The dance was held in the gym and no admission was charged. On May 16 we held a bake sale at Princeton, Maysville and Eldridge; net proceeds were $140.00. We also decided to charge class dues from which we now have $110.00.

Class officers for the year were Bonnie Meinert, Matt Costello, Shirley Hansen and Maureen Thiede.

A good number of freshmen took part in the band, mixed chorus, Talent Show, speech activities, Style Show, Pep Club, F.F.A. and many other activities.

We were also pleased to see so many freshmen on the honor roll. We hope all our years are as good as this one.

PEP CLUB

pep club -- -- was responsible-----

---for signs like this and-----crowds like this!

North Scott athletic teams had the benefit of the Pep Club to cheer them on to victory in their first year. The club, which was headed by Miss Shope, included most senior high students.

In order to boost sportsmanship, the Pep Club sponsored a slogan contest, a beanie being awarded to the three winners. The winning slogans, "Sportsmanship like soap, keep it clean" "Get Hep, Go Pep," and "Win or lose, Let's hear no boos," were submitted by various students who were awarded a beanie.

A section was roped off at all basketball games to keep cheering in one section.

The center-piece for Holy Week Services.

The Christian Youth Club's major event for the year was the Holy Week Services. They were held every morning during Holy Week.

The Christian Youth Club's major purpose is to try to create a Christian attitude among the students. To put this into practice, the club had a bell ring to summon a thirty second period of silent prayer.

BIOLOGY club

The Biology Club was organized early in November for the purposes of promoting additional study. Social and leadership training were also objectives.

Twenty-four members worked as a group to compile a complete book on the mammals of Scott County.

Additional work was done on the aquarium. Some laboratory equipment and a set of biological equipment and a set of biological film strips were purchased with funds taken in by the club.

speech activities

The four students who competed in the state speaking contest presented their speeches for the student body during an assembly. They are Bev Amhof, Sue Ewoldt, Sandra Koch, and Mary Ann Strobbe.

Out of approximately 55 North Scott students who started out in speech work, 19 proceeded to the pre-district contest held at Davenport High School in February. None of these had any previous speech contest experience. Seven of this group received "1" ratings which are considered superior. They were Sue Ewoldt, Joanne Mess, Mary Orendorf, Sandra Koch, Mary Ann Strobbe, Virginia Pollock, and Beverly Amhof. These 7 advanced to the district contest at Muscatine.

Four of the group, Sue Ewoldt, Sandra Koch, Mary Ann Strobbe, and Bev Amhof, earned "1" ratings. The next competition in line for these four was the state Iowa High School Speech Association contest in Grinnell. Bev Amhof earned a "1" while the others received "2".

It was felt that the students who achieved the honor of attending the district contest deserved awards for their achievement. All seven received scarlet and silver N.S. letters. The four who competed at the state level were also awarded pins denoting their excellence in public speaking at the awards assembly on May 25.

These students competed in the pre-district contest: Bev Amhof, interpretive reading; Mike Keehner, radio; Virginia Pollock, radio; Sandy Koch, extemporaneous; Jerry Kuhl, extemporaneous; John Carlin, radio; Bev Spies, original oratory; Leonard Hamann, radio; Arlon Lamont, original.

Life as a P.K. (preacher's kid) is no picnic as believed by Hartzell Spence, played by Kent Snyder in the one-act play, "Get Thee Behind Me." Especially when your father is a serious minded preacher in a Methodist church and gives you little opportunities to indulge in a love life with an attractive girl like Eleanor Freeman.

After having been entered in a contest work, "Get Thee Behind Me" received an excellent rating at District Contest held at Muscatine.

the CURIOUS SAVAGE

An entertaining comedy, The Curious Savage, was presented April 17 and 18 in the high school gymnasium.

The story is built around the fact that Mrs. Savage had been left ten million dollars by her husband, and wants to make the best use of it. Her children, thinking she was spending it foolishly, committed her to a "sanatorium" hoping it would "bring her to her senses." Mrs. Savage likes it in the sanatorium and the people in it. She plans to spend the rest of her life as one of them until the doctor tells her there is no reason why she should remain there.

She didn't want to leave because she lead an amusing and useful life with her friends who were interested in HER and not her money. Mrs. Savage finally led her step-children on a merry chase to find the hidden money, which ends in complete frustration. At last her friends conspire to get rid of the in-laws, and through their simple belief in the justice of her cause, they enabled Mrs. Savage to carry out her plans. The farewell party in the last scene is a delightful fantasy where each "guest" in the sanatorium realizes at last some hopeless dream for something they were never able to get.

The completion of this scenery was due to the cooperation of many departments.

"She bit me! Look for yourself. Teeth marks!!"

Bev Spies, editor-in-chief, spent long hours rewriting and editing news articles.

Many things go into the publication of a paper.

Kent Snyder, Lory Braet, Eljean Kundel, and Bill Bayles design the layout pages for the newspaper.

The Journalism class forms the nucleus of both the staffs of the "LANCE" and the "SHIELD." The newspaper was financed by the sale of advertisements, the balance of the cost being paid by the Board of Education. Over 2,000 copies of the paper were distributed to every student in the North Scott system. It came out approximately every two weeks with a total of sixteen being published during the school year.

This is our CHIEF! Mr. Sible! He's really not as easy going as he seems to be in this shot, for if it wouldn't have been for his engineering you wouldn't be holding this yearbook.

In the year of 1959, the first yearbook, The SHIELD, was published by the Journalism class. The budget was $2,000 and was met by selling $1,000 worth of annuals and the remaining $1,000 was raised by selling advertisements. Total annual sales number near 350.

The people in the Journalism class wish to thank the people outside of class for the assistance that they donated to the staff.

the season

Though North Scott's first 1958 football scoring record was not the most outstanding, the Lancer's first football season was victorious in several other aspects.

The coaches, Mrs. Oles, Nelson, Rockamp, and McCleary started the season with a tough job. They had several inexperienced players and the first job was to develop the boys into a good team.

Actually, they accomplished this and made fine players out of the boys as the season progressed.

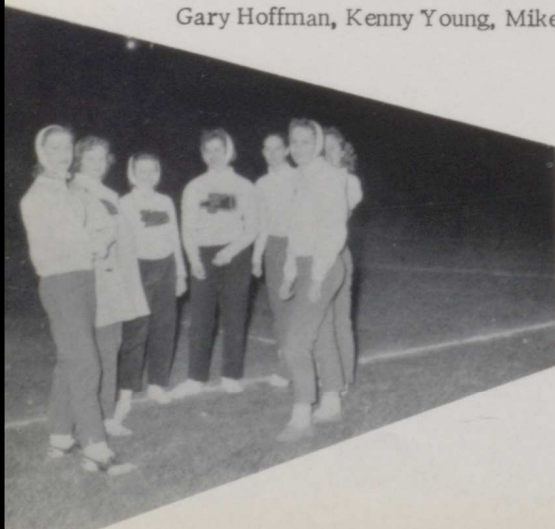

Winning 2 out of 5 games for a team in its first year is a good record.

The Lancer's, too, have established a tremendous reputation and spirit that will be a tradition for the school to be carried on in later years.

Season Info

The '58-'59 basketball season was another North Scott first. The season began with an unfinished gym and the first practice was held at LeClaire and DeWitt. The first game was played away because the gym still was under construction.

The season started with cutting the squad to the number wanted and finding each one's abilities for the sport. Success and building a good team were the goals set for the first season. The season record showed 6 wins, 13 losses for the first year.

The boys in action.

The '59 baseball season followed the same pattern as other sports for the year.

The team was being built for future years and although they were not victorious the years to come are sure to be different.

No home games were played because the diamond was not ready but by the '60 season it will be in shape.

Coaches McCleary and Roskamp were well satisfied with the results and progress of the team and are looking forward to better seasons in years to come.

Trackseason for '59 was one of the high lights of the sporting seasons due to the fact that Bill Frazier was State Champion in the half mile.

Although the track wasn't ready, the team practiced on the school lawn and drive and got in shape for an average season.

"Of Course The Quickest Way
To Get There Is To Call
Long Distance"

LE CLAIRE & PRINCETON

TELEPHONE EXCHANGE
Russel Enyeart - Owner
Princeton, Iowa

There's no faster, better, more personal way of getting together than with a long distance call. It's the most appreciated way to keep in touch. And It's always so economical. Especially if you call after 6 PM on weekdays or any time on Sunday.

Congratulations

And Best Wishes
